Dear Mr. Strauss,

At the request of Dr. J.G. Beckerley, I cabled yesterday to Sir William Penney reminding him that he had expressed doubts to you about the wisdom of declassifying the film "Operation Ivy", and asking him if he would specify which items in the film he had in mind when he made this remark to you. I have just received a reply from Sir William Penney asking that the following personal message be conveyed to you:

In case any part of the message is unclear, would you please let me know in order that I can asking for it to be repeated or, if necessary, corrected.

Yours truly,

J.F. Jackson
